● REC

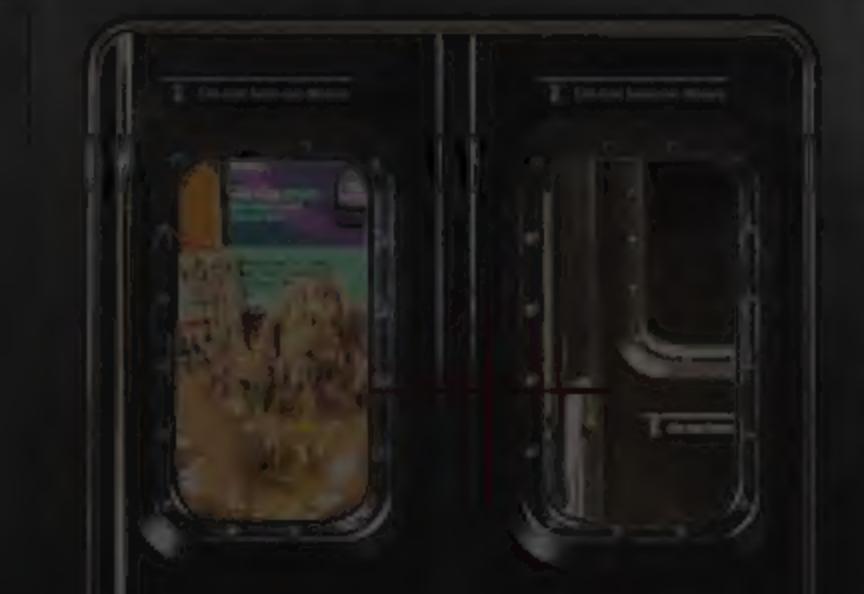

Thank you all for staying along until now! Hope you have enjoyed this crazy journey, tried to make this as nasty as possible while staying sexy and I think I was successful, at least for me. I gave my best into making this version of Android #18 and she has gained quite a few fans until now, I'm happy for that!

When I started this I didn't think it would turn out into a massive 270+ pages comic.

There were actually a few things I wanted to try on this comic, but I guess there's enough debauchery already in this. Surely my bimbo #18 was crowned as a filth queen! Gotta save some ideas for the next time!

If you made this far, follow me on pixiv and let me know if you liked this comic. Did you follow along from the start? You imagined all this from the first part or did it surprise you? Went beyond your expectations? Below? Let me know! That's it, not much to left say. Till next time!

It is in my plans to review and add dialogue to this comic so I can release a "final" version of it later.

Probably it's gonna be a very long while until I do another big comic like this. But I shall release small stories, surely under 10 pages and with other characters. Just not sure when... I need to work on the characters first.
